Widgets is platform-independent software. You can deploy the installation package on any operating system that Widgets supports.

What's New

This release includes the following new feature:

- New RichMedia type: Single Selection Lists. Single Selection Lists are visually similar to standard non-selectable Lists but each list item has a radio button for making a selection as well as a Submit button below the list. Users can select only one list item from the list and submit their selection as a textback. (CXW-2065)

Resolved Issues

This release contains the following resolved issues:

Fixed an issue where the spacebar or enter keys would not activate the WebChat's send button. (CXW-2267)
